

ORDINANCE NO. 10-1972

MT. PLEASANT TOWNSHIP, COLUMBIA COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

An ordinance regulating rubbish disposal dumps, garbage disposal dumps, sanitary landfills, incinerators and other similar uses and providing penalties for violation, for the public health, safety and welfare.

SECTION I. It shall be unlawful for any person, co-partnership, public authority or corporation to use or occupy any premises as or for a rubbish disposal dump, garbage disposal dump, sanitary landfill, incineration plant or other similar use within the Township of Mt. Pleasant Township, whereby any noxious or offensive odors, putrid or polluted water or other discharge, smoke, soot, ash, refuse, rubbish or filth of any nature whatever is blown, carried or discharged in any manner unto public roads or upon the premises of other persons, co-partnerships or corporations, unless a permit to do so shall first be obtained from the Board of Supervisors of Township.

SECTION II. Application for a permit under this ordinance shall be made in writing to the Board of Supervisors, setting forth in detail a survey plot-plan of the premises intended to be used, certified copies of test borings and the results thereof, a topographical map of the proposed premises, showing soil strata and the depth, flow and location of underground water, copies of all permits required and issued by the Pennsylvania Department of Health and Environmental Resources and a detailed summary of the hours and methods of operation.

SECTION III. If the Board of Supervisors is satisfied that all the requirements listed in Section II hereof have been properly met, and that the proposed location and hours and method of operation shall not be injurious in any way to the health, safety and welfare of the residents in the vicinity of the premises proposed to be so used, they shall issue a permit.

SECTION IV. Any such permit issued shall be good for one year from the date of issuance, and an annual permit shall be required, by filing an application and providing all the information as set forth in Section II hereof.

SECTION V. The provisions of this ordinance shall be severable, and if any provision or clause in this ordinance shall be declared invalid, all other provisions and clauses shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect.

SECTION VI. Any person, co-partnership, public authority or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon summary proceeding brought in the name of the Township before any Justice of the Peace, be fined upon conviction in any amount not exceeding Three hundred dollars ($300.00), or in default thereof be sentenced and committed to the County Jail for a period not exceeding thirty (3) days. Each day of violation shall be considered a separate violation.

SECTION VII. This ordinance shall become effective five (5) days after adoption.

ENACTED into ordinance this 1st day of May A. D., 1972.
